

TAB

29.
H. R. 9172

Comments on Pending Legislation

Office of General Counsel

This bill generally requires that with any request for legislation the requesting department or agency forward a statement of additional personnel that would be required by its enactment and fairly detailed justification for any resultant increase in its personnel strength. As the Act specifically excludes the Central Intelligence Agency from its coverage, it does not seem that any action is required.

25X1

1 March 1956

Assistant General Counsel